Baton Rouge Police Detectives have arrested LUIS CARLOS FLORES, 30 of 10530 Florida Blvd #412 on multiple counts of Simple Burglary.

On 01-09-14, FLORES forced his way through the front door of Anthony's Italian Deli, 10248 Florida Blvd, after the business had closed. While inside the business, FLORES stole a large amount of specialty deli meats and other food items.

On 01-11-14, FLORES also burglarized the business of American Pawn, 10224 Florida Blvd. FLORES was able to enter the business through the roof, again after the business closed. While inside FLORES stole a shotgun, an I-Phone along with computers from within the business.

Surveillance footage from both businesses along with witness statements helped linked FLORES to both burglaries.

While questioning FLORES, investigators recognized his physical build along with a large tattoo on his right forearm. Investigators recall a subject fitting the same description on surveillance video of an Auto Zone burglary which occurred on 08-13-13. Several of FLORES roommates were allowed to observe the video and told investigators that it was FLORES in the video.

FLORES was later booked into the East Baton Rouge Parish for the burglaries of Anthony's Italian Deli, American Pawn and Auto Zone.
