Baton Rouge Police Motorcycle Division dominated in the recent Southeast Police Motorcycle Skills Rodeo, which was held April 30, 2014 thru May 3, 2014 in Hollywood Florida.

Around 168 motorcycle officers representing 39 law enforcement agencies participated in timed competitions designed to simulate maneuvers and emergency situations faced by motorcycle officers during their regular duties.

Baton Rouge Police took 1st place in the team slow ride and 4th place in the team competition.

Corporal Marco Leblanc, Baton Rouge Police, earned the title of "Mr. Rodeo" for taking 1st place in the overall competition. Corporal Leblanc also took 1st place in the slow ride, 4th place in the fun run, 2nd place in the Bronfman Challenge Award and 4th place in the speed run.

Corporal Jeremy Stanley , Baton Rouge Police, earned 5th place overall, 2nd place in the slow ride, 1st place in the fun run, and 1st place in the Bronfman Challenge Award.

Corporal Brandon Smith, Baton Rouge Police, earned 3rd place in the slow ride, 3rd place in the Bronfman Challenge Award.

Corporal Caleb Eisworth, Baton Rouge Police, earned 5th place in the fun run.

Guitars were given out as awards for their accomplishments.
