FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHOOTING ON WAYNE AVE

Baton Rouge Police have arrested a 16 year old in connection with the accidental shooting death of AJEANAE FRAZER, 20, 3554 WAYNE AVE and booked him into the East Baton Rouge Juvenile Detention Center for Negligent Homicide and Illegal Possession of a Firearm.

Police were dispatched to a one vehicle traffic crash that occurred in the 3500 block of Wayne Ave around 3:40pm yesterday afternoon. Throughout the course of this investigation detectives learned that Frazer's boyfriend, MICHAEL HASTEN, 25, 3554 WAYNE AVE, had an altercation earlier in the day with a group of individuals and came home to get help so he could retaliate. Hasten gave the 16 year old an assault rifle.

The 16 year old and Frazer were together inside of a vehicle when the assault rifle accidentally fired, striking her in the upper torso. Frazer died at the scene.

Hasten's father, MARK WARNER, 50, 3554 WAYNE AVE, removed the weapon from the scene and hid it prior to police arrival.

Hasten was booked into EBR Parish Prison for Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor and Felon in Possession of a Firearm. Warner was booked into EBR Parish Prison for Obstruction of Justice and Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor.
