FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MULTIPLE GUNS RECOVERED BY POLICE

Baton Rouge Police detectives arrested REGGIL HARRIS, 46, 2243 73RD AVE and a 13 year old juvenile last night for being in possession of stolen guns. Uniformed Officers made contact with the 13 year old juvenile in the Banks subdivision area after receiving information that he was robbing individuals with a hand gun.

The 13 year old took detectives and uniformed officers to Harris's house in an attempt to locate the weapon that was used in the robbery. During a search of the home officers located 14 guns that were hidden in the attic. Three of the guns were reported stolen.

Police arrested Harris and booked him into East Baton Rouge Parish Prison for 3 counts of Illegal Possession of a Firearm. The 13 year old was booked into the Juvenile Detection Center for Illegal Possession of a Firearm, Juvenile in Possession of a Firearm and Simple Robbery.

Police also believe that some of the recovered weapons have been used in recent crimes in our immediate area.

Anyone having information on this incident is urged to contact the Burglary Division at 389-3824 or Crime Stoppers at 344-7876.
