Baton Rouge Police HIDTA, Highway Interdiction Task Force, seized a large amount of liquid meth during a traffic stop on September 29, 2014 around 12:15am. Police stopped a commercial passenger bus that was traveling eastbound on I-12 between Airline Hwy and Sherwood Forest Blvd and located 36 bottles of suspected liquid meth.

The liquid meth was detected by a K-9, hidden in a suitcase in the luggage compartment. This is believed to be one of the largest drug busts of liquid meth in the country with an estimated street value of $700,000 dollars.

Vanessa Hernandez, 34, 10161 West Park Dr, Houston, Texas, was booked into East Baton Rouge Parish Prison and charged with Possession of Schedule 2 narcotics in excess of 400grams.
