Update

Emerson Jackson, 32, and Travis Wheeler, 27, turned themselves in to police authorities today and have been booked into East Baton Rouge Parish Prison and charged with Abuse of Office.

Issac Bolden, 40, is expected to turn himself in to police authorities sometime next week.

Original

Baton Rouge Police Chief Carl Dabadie fired two police officers, Emerson Jackson, 32, and Travis Wheeler, 27, early this morning after a Grand Jury indicted them for their involvement of an alleged sexual incident that occurred earlier this year.

Jackson has been employed with the Police Department for 6 years and Wheeler for 5 years. Both officers worked in the Uniform Patrol Division.
