Thanksgiving Adopt a Family

On November 26, 2014, the Baton Rouge Police Department will participate in the 4th Annual Thanksgiving Adopt a Family Giveaway. This year, the BRPD has partnered with the Capital Area chapter of the Magnolia State Peace Officers Association and the Lambda Kappa Kappa Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., to adopt a total of fifty-five (55) needy families throughout the Baton Rouge community.

This event could only be described as a community effort. Besides a partnership between law-enforcement and a national Greek fraternity, local schools to include Polk and Audubon Elementary as well as inner-city churches, Greater King David Baptist Church, Elm Grove Baptist Church & Jehovah Ministries, were used to identify those in need. Once identified, Bayou Café and Catering owner, Mr. Frank Brown, agreed to prepare the dinners for the indigent.

We are meeting at Bayou Café, 5068 Airline Hwy, for 11:00am this morning to prepare for giveaway delivery. All local media are invited.
