Over 500 Audubon Elementary students will begin their holiday break today with a little help from the Baton Rouge Police Department. Gifts will be handed out around 10:30am to each student by members of the BRPD as part of the annual school adoption event. This event was also made possible by Lambda Kappa Kappa Chapter of ΩΨΦ Fraternity, Inc., Magnolia State Peace Officers Association Capital Chapter, Bethany Church Outreach Ministry, Baton Rouge Constable's DARE Program, along with members of the public who also contributed to this event.

All media are welcome to attend.
